The following points were included in the Tudeh Party weekly instructions for the week beginning 10 June 1952, as received by a Tudeh cell composed of Government white collar technical workers:

- a. A bonus will be offered to the Party member who sells the most copies of the newspaper Maslahat.
- b. Dafa magazine, which is printed in French, will soon appear in Iran. It will sell for 10 rials. Members are urged to buy it.
- c. The newspaper Maslahat will be increased in size. Members of the Party are urged to contribute articles on "Peace."
- d. The office which is making preparation for the Middle East and African Peace Conference will be open until 21 June 1952. Members should send more people to the office to sign up for the Conference.
- e. On 24 June the Tudeh will observe "Farmers' Harvest Day." A special newspaper will be issued in celebration of this day.
